WELCOME

Dear Guests and Friends of the 2019
BRAZIL LEGAL SYMPOSIUM AT HARVARD LAW SCHOOL,

It is our pleasure to welcome you once again for a thought-provoking symposium in Cambridge.

The HLS Brazilian Studies Association, a student-run organization, has carefully planned a week-long event with the goal of promoting academic exchange between Brazilian and American Professors, Justices, philosophers, practicing lawyers, elected Representatives, and other high-ranking authorities.

Among our lecturers are Professors from the most prominent US and Brazilian academic institutions, such as Harvard, Yale, Stanford, Columbia, UnB, UERJ, USP, UFPR, PUC-Rio, FGV/RJ, and FGV/SP. In the audience, we have the pleasure to host over eighty Brazilian federal, state, and labor Judges, members of the Office of the Legislative Counsel from the Brazilian National Congress, public attorneys from the State of Rio de Janeiro, lawyers, and students.

In this symposium, we want to discuss how to navigate through the obstacles our societies face with regard to different fields of Law and to provide in a nutshell the experience of being part of HLS' vibrant environment. In a moment of extreme polarization, we embrace open, fruitful, and in-depth dialogue. Please bring your concerns and questions: let us put them into perspective and together craft solutions and a path for moving forward.
